

Announcing a New Tour for 2027!

Join us next October for 10 days of culinary delight called SavorSicily!

Here in the melting pot of the Mediterranean—literally and figuratively—we visit markets, taste wines, and learn secrets of Sicilian cooking in hands-on cooking classes.

We begin on the beach in beautiful Taormina, then move to the heart of historic Ragusa, and finish at a remarkable resort hotel on the water in Syracuse.

At the moment, we await our airline reservations, but in the meantime, we wanted to let you know about this amazing tour. The cost will be ~$8,000 (airfare included), and we are staying in 4- and 5-star hotels.

The dates are Oct 23 - Nov 3, 2027, with a maximum number of participants at 20. And while we're not ready to officially take reservations, if you'd like to hold your place on this culinary tour, you can send a $1000 deposit to the address below. It is fully refundable.
